Dig the Dunes is thrilled to have the Illegal Smiles come out to Uptown Social in Michigan City for an intimate concert celebrating the music of the amazing singer/songwriter, John Prine. For this concert you can choose from private high top tables of 2, private tables of 4, General Admission lower level or front row balcony with a private upstairs bar.

The Illegal Smiles are a group of Chicagoland songwriters and musicians with a deep love for the songs of John Prine, from his stunning debut to The Tree of Forgiveness, and everything in-between. The beauty of Prine fans is that we know the words, whether they make us sob or smile. So come sing-a-long, it don't cost very much, but it lasts a long while.
