

THE ILLEGAL SMILES

Celebrating the music of John Prine

PRESENTED BY DIG THE DUNES

SATURDAY MAY 17

7PM: DOORS

8PM: SHOWTIME

GA $30

VIP: $37.50 each SOLD IN TABLES

Dig the Dunes is thrilled to have the Illegal Smiles come back to Uptown Social in Michigan City for an intimate concert celebrating the music of the amazing singer/songwriter, John Prine. For this concert you can choose from private high top tables of 2, private tables of 4, General Admission lower level or front row balcony with a private upstairs bar.

Please note that tables will be assigned as they are purchased (front to back). GA seats are first come, first served. (all general admission will have chairs).

Doors open at 7pm. Show starts at 8pm with one 15 minute intermission.

No Refunds 7 days prior to event.

The Illegal Smiles are a group of Chicagoland songwriters and musicians with a deep love for the songs of John Prine, from his stunning debut to The Tree of Forgiveness, and everything in-between. The beauty of Prine fans is that we know the words, whether they make us sob or smile. So come sing-a-long, it don't cost very much, but it lasts a long while.